Pat. thanks for the reply and info. I have some additional that you may want to put in files. I found the following:
Nov 21 1842 George W. Pawe m Margaret Guinn- Washington Co
May 31 1842 William H. Wright m Mahala Taylor- " Ala.
Dec 14 1837 David W. Wright m Rebecca Guinn in Sumter Co
Westley Guinn security

Apr 27 1834 Westley Guinn m Lovinia Price Sumter Co. Ala >
married by Charles Guinn minister; Henry Guinn Bondsman
May 9 1837 Hugh Guinn m Sarah H. Payne in Sumpter Co. AL
These were found on microfilm of Early Marriages of Alabama J.A.Guinn was born in Washington County AL Dec. 21 1807 and died on Feb. 7 1897. (from "Alabama Christian Adv."6-24-97)

J.A.Wright voted in Livingston (Sumter County) in 1843
The following story was told me by my uncle about W. Guinn and wife Jane. Jane was the daughter of Solomon Blythe who lived in Tenn. She wanted to marry W. Guinn, but Solomon disapproved and moved to Texas to prevent the marriage.>>> However, love won out and she did marry Guinn. After their last son was born, W. Guinn left and was not heard from again. W. Guinn's and Jane's daughter, Rebecca Jane Guinn married Henry S Wright later moving to Clarke County, MS, then to Meridian MS. They were my great grandparents. Henry served in the Cofederate Army and died in 1904. Rebecca Jane lived until the 1940's. The 1850 Choctaw County Census lists F.H. as a laborer age 16 in the household of W. and Jane Guinn, but it lists Jane as age 30. I wonder if maybe W. had been married before and F.H. was a son by a first wife. Maybe someone else can help. Robert in Nashville
